The Senior Class of Upper Arlington High School
Columbus, Ohio

We, the class of 1956, dedicate this Norwester with gratitude, homage, and affection to that which has been the symbol of our education for so many years—our high school building.

A symbol is a representation which does not aim at being a reproduction — a visible sign of something invisible. Longfellow once said,

“All things are symbols: the external shows of Nature have their image in the mind.”

As books are the symbol of education, as the cross is the symbol of Christianity, as the lion is the symbol of courage, so may this, our Norwester, be the symbol of our lives during these few years at Upper Arlington High School.

Seniors

Senior Class Officers

Bob McWilliams . . . President

Sy Sherman . . . Secretary

John Joseph . . . Vice-President

Steve Williams . . . Treasurer

The Class of 1956 found that hard work and diligent leadership must accompany the fun and the prestige which make the senior year such a memorable one.

Bob McWilliams, president; John Joseph, vice-president; Sy Sherman, secretary; and Steve Williams, treasurer led the class in their many fund-raising projects to finance the Norwester. These projects proved to be as time-consuming as the Junior-Senior had been.

Tri-Village Studios was the photographer for the Norwester, which was headed by Larry Grubbs, editor-in-chief, and Miss Vera K. Randall, adviser.

Pigskin Preview, the dance after the Preview game, marked the beginning of the seniors' efforts to get their financial affairs off to a promising start. During the year various projects were undertaken, such as paper drives, sale of Golden Bear stationery, canvassing Arlington for Booster Club memberships, and selling concessions at basketball games. Sales tax stamps became tickets to Miss Randall's English classes as the seniors lived up to the motto, "Fill your container once every two weeks." What underclassman could ever forget those philanthropic bake sales at 3:30?

Homecoming highlighted the fall's activities when Judy Smith was chosen 1955's queen and Rachel Colby, Joan Albin, Lucy Pugh, and Mickey McSwain reigned with her at the game and homecoming dance.

Term papers caused the traditional headaches, but when December 9 rolled around all the seniors had miraculously created works of literary genius. After the term papers the seniors and their parents settled down to a week of complete relaxation.

The class combined their final efforts to produce the senior class play late in the spring. Senior Day, the class picnic, graduation parties, baccalaureate, and finally commencement exercises climaxed the many unforgettable experiences which are a part of every senior year.

Judy Smith, Judy Magly, Carolyn Baker, Joan McCullough, Susie Tilton, and Jane Hollenbeck are up in the air over "Can Can."

The Man Who Came To Dinner gets finishing touches in one of the final senior class play rehearsals.

Miss Mann, students, and parents gather for refreshments after the annual Quill & Scroll initiation.

Mascots, Betty Baker and Donna Baker, the cheerleaders, the homecoming queen and her court, and the escorts take time out from the excitement of the Arlington-Grandview game.

Mr. Bush and Mr. Guesman try in vain to make "Smiley" Shreffler relinquish his happiness at the faculty pep rally before the Bexley basketball game.

Studious Dan Duncan, Charlie Rowe, and Judy Swinger read material for the dreaded term papers while Chuck Hittson ambitiously searches for more.

Members of Miss Randall's homeroom relax while reading their Arlingtonians before the morning classes begin.

Three senior couples, Beeky and Ken, Rachel and Bob, and Nina and Jim, take time out to pose at the Preview Game dance.

The seniors are working diligently at what they hope will be their last exams.

"Who Me?" exclaims Judy Smith as she is crowned U. A.'s homecoming queen for 1955 by senior class president, Bob McWilliams.

Dean Dugger, Ohio State All-American, listens for a cheer from the fans at the pep rally before the U. A.-Mt. Vernon football game.

The perennial and always dreaded day finally arrives for the seniors. You guessed it! - term papers.

Queen Judy Smith with escort Bob McWilliams and chauffeur Jim Saeger-What kind of car is that, Jim?

Rich Lee defends Grandview, accused by Arlington of impersonating a champion at the final football pep rally. No one will ever forget who the unidentified judge was - our coach.

Joe "The Egyptian" Berwanger and Dick "Tiny" Sebastian present the traditional football to Queen Judy Smith.

It just couldn't be done - not even "Little Caesar" could "force" a sad look on Shreff's countenance.

Scottish lad, Dick Hardy, and lassie, Lucy Pugh, display their colorful costumes at the Masquerade Ball.

"Professeur" Jones and Nancy Lloyd "parle" together while other interested students in the advanced French class look on.

Jane Springsteen, Jane Rudolph, and Susie Rardon, along with two Frenchmen, as they appeared in the Arlingtonian's "Can Can."

Office assistants, Steve Williams and Jane Hollenbeck, work with Mr. Bush during the first period.

Seniors examine their graduation announcements at the distributing point - Miss Randall's homeroom.

Helen Buchanan shows Mr. Lutz the books on display by National Honor Society.

"Touchee" rings through the Senior English classes as scenes from Hamlet are re-enacted.

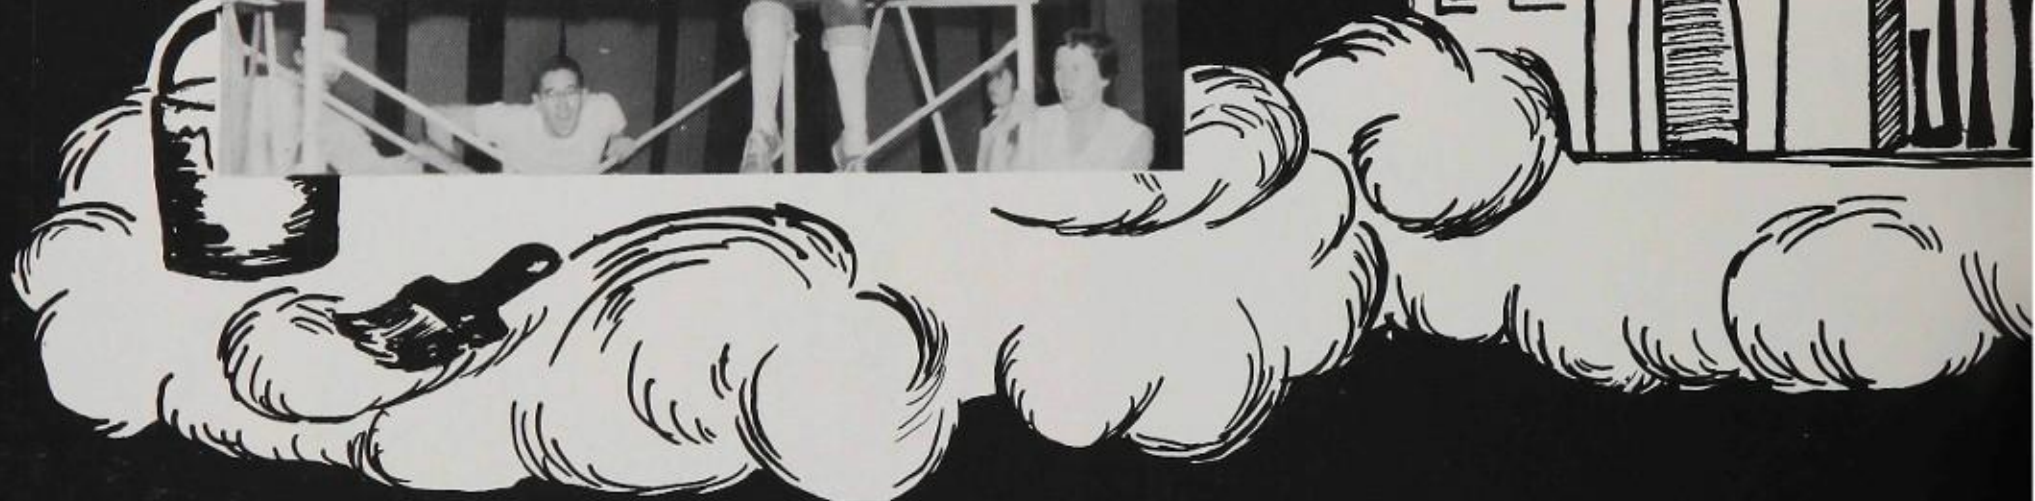

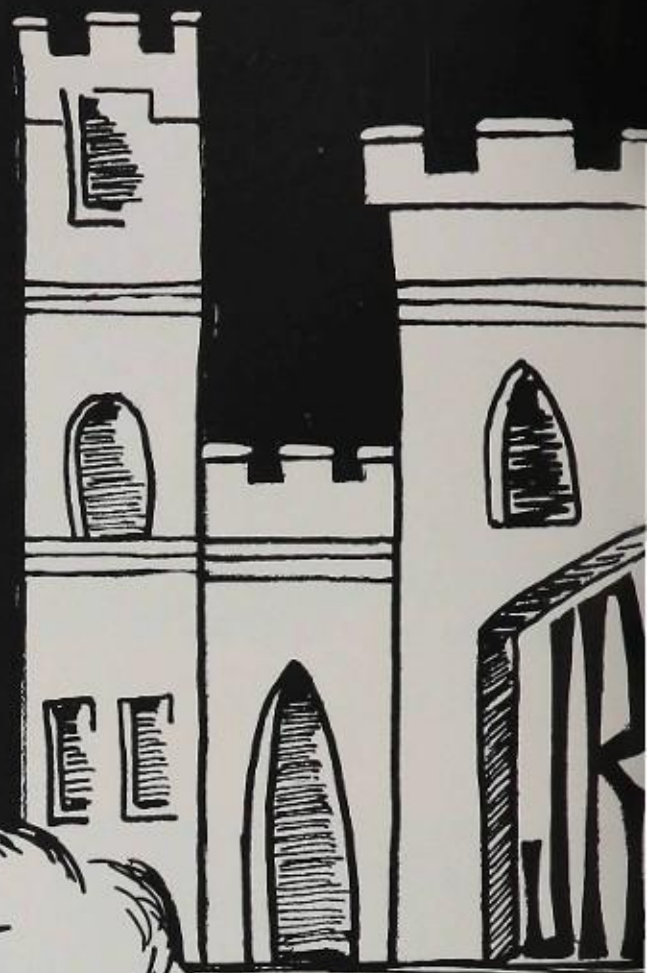

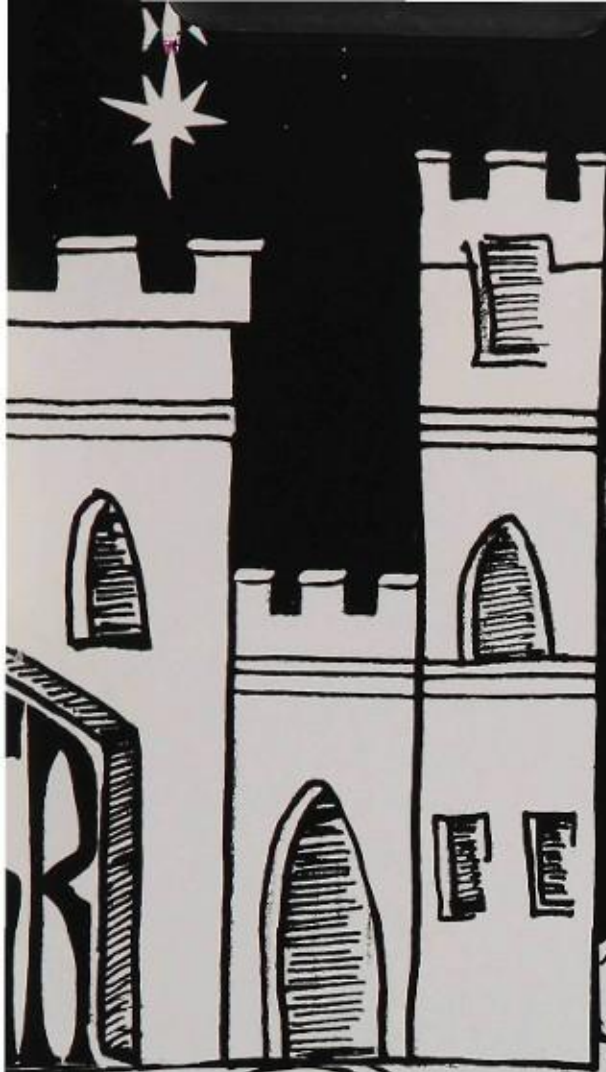

Suzy Hays and Bill Phillips proudly point out the fact that they've read more books than any other English students.

The never-ending daily line in the office begins forming early as Mr. Bush looks over the excuses.

THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN

Underclassmen

Junior Class

Officers

Mike Fitzgerald . . . President

Susie Burt . . . Secretary

Frank Dunbar . . . Vice-President

• Dave Peterson . . . Treasurer

The main project of the class of '57 was the same as that of every other year—the planning and financing of the Junior-Senior. Early in the school year the class chose Susie Burt and Rick von Haam as co-chairmen of the dance. Other committee heads were Harry von Ulmer and Frank Dunbar, construction; Eric Spilker, invitations; Martin Gear and Nancy Erb, general decorations; Ann Edmondson and Judy Daugherty, refreshments; Dave Peterson, financing; and Marilee Bachman and Ann Armstrong, invitations.

Of course the seniors were left completely in the dark about all plans until May 5th the long-awaited day.

The Juniors had many means of making money. They earned $340 by selling concessions at the football games. They also sold Christmas cards, collected paper and scraps, and won $50 in the P. T. A. subscription campaign.

Mary Beth Lutz and Dick Hoffman had the leads in the junior class play, The Late Christopher Bean, which was presented on December 10. Others displayed their acting ability in English class when they presented scenes from Macbeth. Phrases like “Double, double, toil and trouble” were heard in the halls for days while juniors were busily practicing their lines.

In their first year as upperclassmen the juniors took on many new responsibilities and activities in the school, thus getting an idea of what their busy senior year would be like.

The juniors were led through this successful year by Mike Fitzgerald, president; Frank Dunbar, vice-president; Susie Burt, secretary, and Dave Peterson, treasurer. Mr. James B. Miller was their adviser.

Frank Dunbar and Maryann von Ulmer look on as Mr. Miller points out our state in their recent study of Ohio history.

The finale brings to an end the fabulous and never-to-be-forgotten "Oklahoma!"

Coach Corey adds spirit to the bon-fire pep rally before the Arlington-Grandview game with his pep talk.

Mr. Ginther and Mrs. Allen "ham it up" the day before the first performance of "Oklahoma!"

Norman Nadel of the Columbus Citizen speaks to the student body at the Arlingtonian assembly.

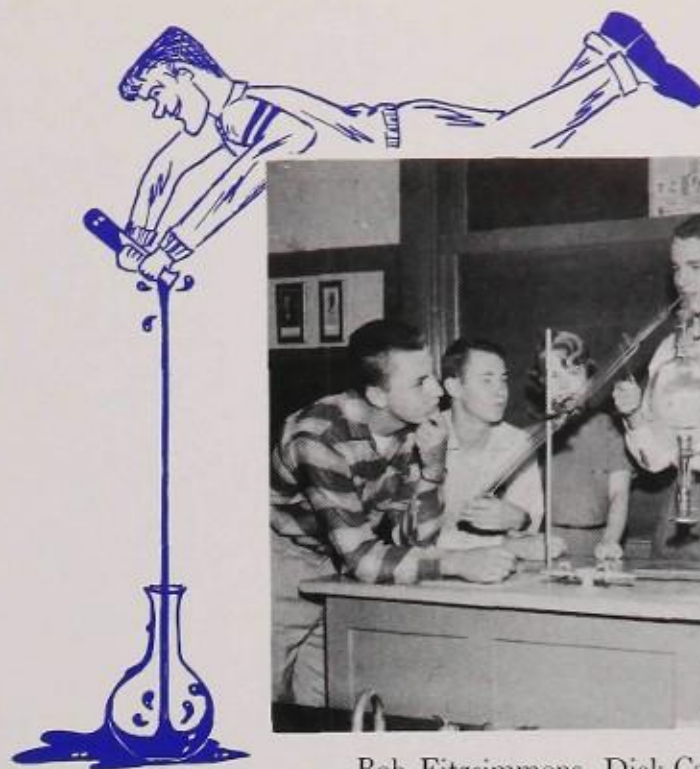

"The Willows" from West entertain during the intermission of the dance following the Arlington-West football game.

Dick Gaupp, Anne Beck, and Todd Tibbals ponder over a problem in Mr. Moyer's advanced algebra class.

Under the watchful eyes of Miss Jackson, members of the typing class "dig, dig, dig" for more speed and accuracy.

Bob Fitzsimmons, Dick Carson, Julie Ray, Sandra Conrey, and Nancy Johnson watch as Ronnie Clark describes a "sky juice still."

Roger "Curly" Rattan tells Aunt Eller "Oh What a Beautiful Mornin" it is.

"Dog Saeg," Jack Nicklis, and Judy Callaghan put the finishing touches on Miss Rea's annual Christmas "shrub."

Dave Locey goes in for a lay-up shot during the exciting Bexley-Arlington game.

Under the direction of Miss Schultz, Virgil lives again in the third-year Latin class.

In the pleasant atmosphere of the auditorium, everybody (?) studies hard.

Sophomore Class

Katie Deeg . . . Treasurer

Dale Wade . . . Vice-President

Ned Crockett . . . President

Diane Miller . . . Secretary

This year advanced languages, Julius Caesar, corollaries, and theorems again found their ways into the lives of the members of the sophomore class. As usual, biology proved to be one of the sophomores' most enjoyable classes as soon as the boys discovered that for some reason the girls did not like to dissect.

Before school opened the sophomores were well on their way to building up their funds for the future. A paper drive, a rag drive, and numerous bake sales were held during the summer. In late August a very successful style show was sponsored by the sophomore girls. This energetic class started a long-needed coat check at the basketball games, and also took advantage of the successful after-school bake sales. Several dances held throughout the year contributed to the treasury. The first dance was held after the West football game. The theme chosen was Fantasia and modern decorations and favors were placed around the gym.

Able leading the sophomore class through 1955-1956 were Ned Crockett, president; Dale Wade, vice president; Diane Miller, secretary; and Katie Deeg, treasurer. Mr. William Gulden served as the class adviser.

It is easy to see that this class has its eyes on the future and will continue to work hard to obtain its goals.

Being chosen for National Honor Society is the greatest honor that can come to a high school student. Each year five per cent of the junior class and ten per cent of the senior class are chosen for membership.

On April 13, 23 new members were admitted to the National Honor Society at the induction ceremony held at Tremont Elementary School.

The society was headed this year by Helen Buchanan, president and Judy Magly, vice-president with Mr. Ellis Lutz as the faculty adviser.

Quill & Scroll

Quill and Scroll is an international honorary journalism society organized to honor and award outstanding students of high school journalism. Those eligible for membership must be in the upper-third of their class and have a specified number of column inches of their writing printed in the Arlingtonian, or have done an equivalent amount of work in another phrase of journalism. A candidate may then join Quill and Scroll with the approval of the adviser, Miss G. Ellen Mann.

Nineteen new members were initiated into Quill and Scroll, in addition to one who received a special award at the annual candlelight induction service held on March 26 in the high school auditorium. Dr. I. Keith Tyler, director of the Institute for Education by Radio and Television at Ohio State University, was the guest speaker. Following the initiation, refreshments were served.

Advertising copy editor Eric Spilker, and photographers Tim Cochran and Ted Yapple prepare their contributions for the next issue of the Arlingtsonian.

The school year 1955-1956 heralded our Alma Mater's thirty-ninth year of history-making and y(our) beloved bi-weekly's thirteenth. But this year's ARLINGTONIAN staff proved an un-superstitious lot and plunged into the hazardous sea of deadlines with enthusiasm rivaling William Allen White's. They had their share of the annual "disasters" (Christmas issue erroneously printed on white stock instead of the ordered powder blue, the loss of photographs which had to be retaken hurriedly, botched engravings, ad infinitum and ad nauseam!) but came out from under fourteen issues with The Gallup Award, and First Class in National Scholastic Press Association competition.

August of '55 found this year's Editor-in-Chief Rich Lee, associate editor Judy Magly, and a page editor, Jane Hollenbeck, along with adviser Miss G. Ellen Mann, in Chicago attending the National Scholastic Press Association Convention. They heard professional journalists speak, sat in on workshops, went sightseeing, saw a stage and ice show, and generally made Chicago take notice of THE ARLINGTONIAN! This stage show, Cole Porter's Can-Can, provided the theme for the subscription drive assembly. The speaker, theater critic Norman Nadel, live French poodles, and "authentic" Can-Can dancers entertained the student body with a not-to-be-forgotten-soon program.

The September search for subscribers netted over a thousand and placed THE ARLINGTONIAN in the hands of more readers than at any year since its initial publication in 1943. The $2.50 trap was baited with prizes — free ballpoint pens for the members of every 100% homeroom and free basketball tickets in addition, if the room was the first in either the junior or senior high sections.

With capital exacted from subscribers and advertisers (the angels!) the presses rolled out issue after issue submerging the readers in a flood of prizes and contests — contests of every description to please every subscriber. Even the crossword puzzle fans had their own section in the ARLINGTON-O-GRAMS.

The celebrity interview became a looked-for feature as THE ARLINGTONIAN recorded its chats with Larry Parks, Danny Kaye, Ted Lewis, Bobby Hackett, Vic Janowicz, Fred Waring, Governor Frank J. Lausche, Nat "King" Cole, Captain Richard McCutcheon, and several other famous personalities.

Many departments of THE ARLINGTONIAN were innovated to accommodate the growing enrollment. The traditional senior personality sketches were enlarged to reach more students. The front page make-up, as well as each page's make-up, was made more flexible to cover major news events like Homecoming, OKLAHOMA!, and commencement. Metallic gold and silver decorated the Christmas, Easter, and Commencement issues.

Student Council

For the first time in the history of the school, Upper Arlington had a girl for president of the Student Council. The officers were Joan Albin, president; Sam Moffett, vice-president; Ann Armstrong, secretary; and Bill Cook, treasurer. Mr. Arthur J. McCullough was the council's adviser.

The Student Council tackled several unusual projects this year. Among these were the sale of basketball season tickets, the organization of Student Council campaigns in the junior high, the installation of a car safety check for the students, and the reorganization of honor study hall.

The Columbus Jaycees sponsored a youth traffic council in which our Council participated. U.A.'s Student Council also attended a state-wide convention held in Cleveland.

Student Court

The main purpose of the Student Court is not to act as a police force, but to promote better relationships among the members of our high school. Jim Hopkins was the chief justice for the year 1955-56 and Jane Hollenbeck was secretary.

The main project of the Student Court this year was the promotion of a youth-in-government day which was sponsored by the Upper Arlington Civic Association. For this project members of the senior class took over the various jobs of our city officials. The students elected a mayor and the four other members of the commission. These commissioners then appointed seniors to the various departments. The Student Court hopes to make youth-in-government day an annual event.

Assembly Committee

As an auxiliary branch of the Student Council, the Assembly Committee is responsible for selecting appropriate programs for open assembly dates and to complete details for assemblies sponsored by outside groups. The Assembly Committee is composed of ten faculty members appointed by the principal and nineteen students chosen from those who had expressed interest in membership.

A majority of the students on the committee voted to have the Chapel Service on December 6. Plans for other assemblies involved selecting from a variety of advertisements, programs which would be educational and entertaining as well as available for the particular dates. For the first time the committee was divided into groups, each being responsible for details of the American Legion assemblies.

The student response is considered in arranging the programs and all Assembly Committee members have worked to find a variety of worth-while entertainment which appeals to the majority of students. Miss G. Ellen Mann, as chairman, has supervised the planning.

"Operation Service" was put into action by the twelve juniors and twenty-two seniors of Leaders' Class, selected for qualities of sincerity, friendliness, initiative, dependability, tolerance and service. Ways and means were provided by the sale of Christmas paper, pecans and basketball programs.

Led by President Steve Williams, Vice-President Bob McWilliams, Secretary Judy Smith, Treasurer Mike Fitzgerald, and Miss Margrett C. Schultz, faculty adviser, the committees worked separately and together to carry out school, community and world service. World Service Committee, headed by Sue Newman, sent Care packages to Korea and American Indians. Planning the annual Leadership Training Conference was the project of School Service under Chairman Judy Magly. Local Service, under Sy Sherman, directed the canned foods' drive and helped an adopted family. With Jim Miller's direction, Newcomer's Committee assisted new students and gave get-acquainted mixers. Children's Parties Committee, with Eleanor Bruce as chairman, gave parties for underprivileged children and elderly people. Joan McCullough's Publicity Committee provided programs and publicity. The accomplishments of the year added to the Leaders' Class reputation for getting things done.

The Upper Arlington Y-Teens, a branch of the Y.W.C.A., was organized to train members for leadership and to help others. Any girl may belong to Y-Teens regardless of race, creed, or religion. These principles were carried out this year under the leadership of Margo Fodor, president, and under the sponsorship of Miss Mildred Wagner and Mrs. Jean Guddat.

As in the past years, two of Y-Teens' important projects were presenting, in cooperation with the Hi-Y, the Thanksgiving and Easter assemblies. Their many activities also included a donation to United Appeals, participation in city-wide Links projects, making St. Patrick's day favors for Children's Hospital, and the installation of Junior Y-Teen officers in a recognition service.

To secure additional funds to finance their projects, Y-Teens sold pencils and candy. They also had bake sales, and they sponsored a dance after one of the basketball games.

At the annual banquet held in the spring, the officers for the next school year were announced.

Hi-Y

Standing: Mr. Dave Shelby, Joe Berwanger, Bob Phlaum, Ron Smith, Mr. James Lipham, Dick Tinsley.

Seated: John Joseph, Tom Jones.

Once again as in years past the Hi-Y Club provided valuable experience along with good fun for its ninety-five members. Through the motto, "Clean living, clean speech, clean sportsmanship, and clean scholarship," the boys succeeded in upholding the fine records set by the Hi-Y Clubs of previous years.

Working with the Y.M.C.A., the members set up two basketball teams and defended the championship won by last year's teams against other Hi-Y teams in the city. Practice sessions were held after the regular business meetings.

Among its school activities the club sold programs at all the home football games, sponsored a dance after the Grandview basketball game, and once again participated in the annual Hi-Y Faculty basketball game.

The Hi-Y Club, in conjunction with Y-Teens, sponsored the Thanksgiving chapel with Dr. Roy A. Burkhardt as guest speaker.

In their first year as advisers, Mr. Dave Shelby and Mr. James Lipham helped the boys in completing a variety of projects. The officers were president, John Joseph; vice-president, Tom Jones; and treasurer, Ron Smith.

The French Club offers all French students an opportunity to use the language which they are learning and to discover the exciting customs and traditions of France.

This year there were two French Clubs. One consisted of second, third and fourth-year students under the able leadership of Ronald Smith, president; Charles Shimp, vice-president; Esther LaRosa, secretary; Mark Sain, treasurer; and Miss Joan Jones, faculty adviser. The other group was made up of first-year students under the guidance of the new French teacher, Miss Bette Gurley. This group was organized at the beginning of the second semester.

The highlight of the year was the second annual Christmas program, Fete de Noel, in which over one hundred students presented a skit on the historical customs of Christmas in France, sang French Christmas carols, and danced some gay, provincial folk dances.

Other events of the year included Les Compagnons de la Chanson at Memorial Hall; the Greater Columbus French party at the Ohio Union; the French Club dance, Gaite Parisienne, after the semester finals in January; and the Fete du Printemps, the final meeting.

Spanish Club is open to any student taking second, third, or fourth year Spanish. Its purpose is to help its members learn more about the customs of the Spanish-speaking peoples and to carry on various service projects for them.

This year for the first time Spanish Club members selected a Program Committee to plan interesting and enjoyable meetings. At one of the first meetings of the year Mary Ann and Harold von Ulmer told of some of the teen-age customs in Colombia and also performed a Spanish dance. Later in the year a president's gavel and castanets from Cuba were presented to the club. In the spring, Mrs. Laetitia Villaria from Monterey, Mexico, spoke on the topic, "Life in Monterey."

One of the highlights of the year was the traditional Christmas Party. After a pot-luck supper, the breaking of the Pinata and other Spanish customs were observed.

With Miss Judith Whitney as adviser, the 1956 officers were Kay Kauer, president; Mickey McSwain, vice-president; Maryann von Ulmer, secretary; and Janet Thomas, treasurer.

Charm Board

Charm Board, whose members are selected for their outstanding character, cooperation, sincerity, maturity, and initiative, had a varied program this year.

In the fall members presented "Tips for Teens," a show consisting of skits, modeling of accessories, and a panel discussion for members of the newly formed Junior High Home Economics Club.

On February 25 Charm Board sponsored the annual "Gold Digger's Prom." Another important event of February was the valentine party for the residents of Home Echo, a home for the aged.

"Spring Special," a style show sponsored by Montaldo's, which was held late in March, was the highlight of Charm Board's activities for the year. Each girl modeled a sports outfit and a formal.

A new affiliation of Charm Board is the Women's Juvenile Service Board. Members of Charm Board collected clothes and completed service projects for members of this board, who hope to establish a juvenile adjustment home of their own.

Mrs. Betty Woolpert served as adviser of the club. The officers were Sy Sherman, president; Joan Albin, vice-president; Diane Miller, secretary; and Sue Perry, treasurer.

Pub Club

The purpose of Publicity Club is to promote school spirit through the publicizing of the school's major athletic events.

In the fall of 1955, Pub Club, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Donna Turner, admitted fifteen new members, making a total membership of thirty-five. The officers for the year were Jane Rudolph, president; Nancy Parker, secretary; and Sy Sherman, treasurer.

The year's activities included making posters and badges for the football and basketball games, signs for the fathers of the boys of the football team on the annual "Dad's Night" on November 24, and the decorating of the goal posts and the athletic field for the Homecoming game.

Pub Club concluded its year of successful activities with a picnic in June, at which time the club announced the officers for 1956-1957.

The purpose of Future Teachers of America is to interest high school students in a teaching career and acquaint them with some of its different phases.

One of the most important projects of the year was cadet teaching. Forty-four girls participated in this activity whereby members visit elementary classes and help the teachers for the purpose of learning classrooms methods. These girls each took one study hall a week to go to the Barrington, Tremont, Fishinger, or Devon Road schools.

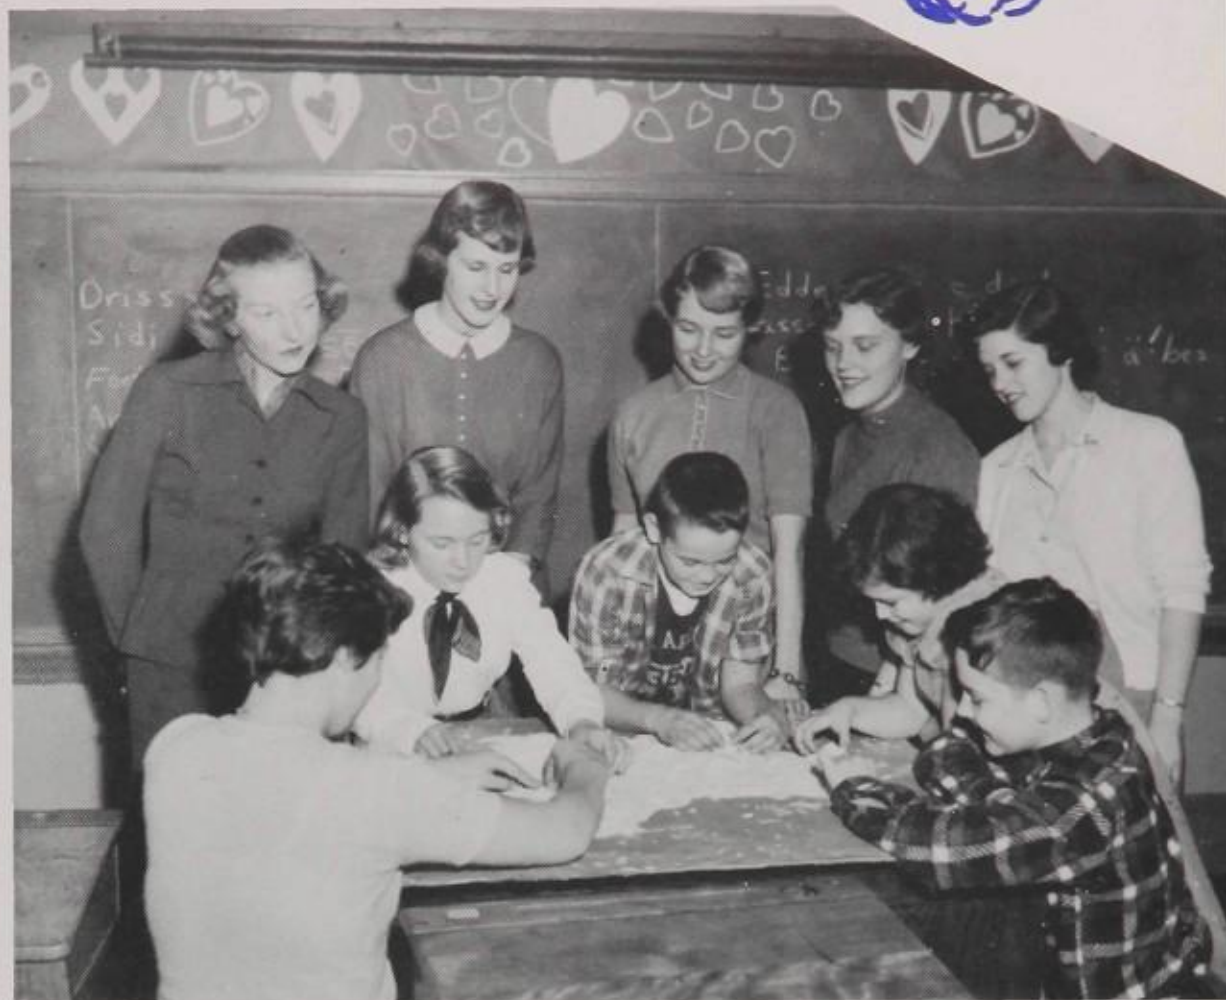

Some of the club's special meetings included a panel discussion by four of the elementary teachers on the questions, "Why choose teaching?" and "What is expected from the cadet teacher?" and a talk by Dr. Collins Burnett from the Education Department of Ohio State University.

During American Education Week F. T. A. gave a tea for the high school faculty members. Although this was a new idea this year, it was very successful.

One special program featured three O. S. U. graduating teachers who told about the teacher in college and after graduation. The traditional Rose Breakfast culminated the 1955-56 year.

President Bev Terry led F. T. A. through the year's activities with the aid of Mrs. Helen Tanner as adviser. Other officers were Judy Smith, vice-president; Polly Peters, secretary; and Evelyn Silbernagel, treasurer.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Mildred Koch, the school nurse, and Helen Buchanan, the president, the Future Nurses of America has again fulfilled its purpose of promoting an interest in nursing.

The activities of the group were varied. On November 21, the members, along with the Future Nurses of Worthington, took a field trip to Nightingale Cottage. The Worthington group acted as hostesses at dinner that evening. The group also visited the Medical Department of North American Aviation. In the spring the girls helped in the Lily Parade.

The members of the group enjoy learning the different phases of nursing. Dr. Peter Sayer spoke on neurological surgery; Kay Wallace, a senior nurse at Ohio State, along with three other nurses told of her experiences during nurses' training.

At the close of the year the officers were elected and were announced at the annual picnic.

The year provided enjoyable social functions and rewarding work for the members of F. N. A.

Library Club

Sondra Knight, Linda Lawrence, Francine Hazard, Rachel Owens, Miss Bernice Rea, Jane Rudolph, Dick Millisor.

Among the important contributions made to the school by members of the Library Club is the educational program in which the aim is to acquaint the student body with the library and its facilities. During the year, members of the club assist junior high school students in using materials from the library and help them learn the Dewey Decimal Classification System. In addition, each member of the Library Club is responsible for one display which stands in the hall outside the library.

This year the club has started a project to select one hundred books for the library. The club members are reading reviews and questioning individuals throughout the school in order to obtain a select choice of books.

Miss Bernice Rea, librarian, served as faculty adviser. The officers for the year were: president, Rachel Owens; vice-president, Francine Hazard; and secretary, Sondra Knight.

Debate Team

Amidst cries of "They can't change our topic in the middle of the year 'Shreff'!" and "... be on the way to Port Clinton by 5:45 a.m.?" the 1955-1956 debate team worked toward completing another successful year.

The debated topic was governmental financial aid to higher education. The Arlington team competed in Columbus, Port Clinton, Springfield, Marysville, Dayton, and at the District Debate Contests.

The long trips throughout the state were highlighted by many unforeseen enjoyable incidents which became associated with various members of the team. Some of them were Nora Browning's references to "firstly, secondly, and thirdly"; Jim Hopkins' overwhelming facts from Fortune; Bill Hadley's "snowball"; Dick Hardy's being judged as polite, kind, and courteous; Nancy Wood's drones; Becky Breen's basketball career; Judy Claugus' changing cases and colleagues; Carol Coddington's cramming the night before a debate; Sabra Carmack's quotes from the president of the National Forensic Society; Hank Arbaugh's insistence on correct English; Dick Anderson's switching notes for the new topic; and Enid Levenson's partner flashing "talk slower" signs.

Thespians

The members of the 1955-56 Thespian Society were initiated in May of 1955. Because of the fact that there are only six members in the club, every newly initiated senior was also elected to an office. The officers are Linda Dorff, president; Richard Lee, vice-president; Jane Rudolph, secretary; and Pat Zimmerman, treasurer.

Thespians is a national society and its members are chosen and admitted on a nationally devised basis. Prospective members must have a minimum of ten points which are derived from the amount and quality of work that they have done in dramatic productions. Thus the number of points that a student receives for each production depends wholly on his interest in dramatics.

Each prospective student's points are compiled at the end of every school year. In the spring, an impressive induction ceremony is held.

Seated: Tom McConnell, Linda Dorff, Richard Lee.
Standing: Jane Rudolph, Mr. Lance Shreffler, Pat Dooley.

Dramatics

Dramatics Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Lance Shreffler, is open to all students in grades nine through twelve.

To discover acting talent is one of the primary purposes of the club. Those students who do outstanding work in the Dramatics Club play have the opportunity of participating in the major dramatic productions presented throughout the year.

Traditionally, the club sponsors an annual dance. On December 12 of this past year the Dramatics Club presented the highly successful "Masquerade Ball."

The officers for the past year were Linda Dorff, president; Rich Lee, vice-president; Jane Rudolph, secretary; and Pat Dooley, treasurer.

Standing: Wyman Haskins, John Safko, Dick Tinsley.

Chess Club

Standing: Phil Tucker, Cris Feuchter, Todd Tibbals, Tom McConnell, Mr. Robert Cavins.

Seated: John Safko, Alan Prasuhn.

The school year 1955-56 has witnessed the birth of Arlington's newest activity, the Knights of Chess. Under the guidance of Mr. Robert H. Cavins, instructor in chemistry, and John Loren Safko, president, the Knights have grown from an original membership of eight to the present of twenty-three. The Knights of Chess, through organized intra- and inter-club competition, has aided greatly in the birth and development of the true spirit of the ancient sport.

President John Safko, along with his other officers, vice-president Alan Prasuhn and secretary-treasurer Dave Fitting, has planned and supervised the activities of the Knights of Chess this year. The officers have arranged tournament contests with Westerville and North high schools. There will be a trophy awarded to the winner of the Westerville-Arlington matches.

The club operates on the accepted club ladder system in rating its members. The top five compose the tournament team.

Through the sale of address labels, the Knights have provided new chess equipment not only to their members but also to the student body for use during the noon hour.

Festo

The Festo Club, which is sponsored by Mrs. Donna Turner, was organized in 1954 by a group of students interested in art. In the few months of the club's existence, its members have done many interesting things. In February of 1955 Mrs. Turner, along with the members of her two high school art classes and the art club, took a bus to Toledo Art Gallery where they saw an exhibit of paintings from the Dutch 17th Century period. In May of 1955 Festo Club sponsored an art exhibit held in the gymnasium of the school. All the art classes were represented and there was a large variety of work displayed.

Among the many interesting things completed during the past school year were the Valentine Dance, co-sponsored with Pub Club, and the trip to Cleveland in February to see a photography exhibit. The most ambitious project of all was the printing and painting of posters for plays and programs given by the various other clubs and organizations in the school.

Under the leadership of Ann Towers, president; Jean Fleming, vice-president; Donna Vest, secretary; and Carolyn Whipps, treasurer, the club enjoyed a successful year.

Seated: Jean Fleming, Donna Vest, Mickey McSwain, Sue Beckemeyer.

Allied Youth

" . . . to seek the truth concerning beverage alcohol and the best way of life in relation to this problem." With this idea in mind the Upper Arlington Chapter of Allied Youth began its second year of activity.

Inspired by the success of North High School's Allied Youth Organization, Upper Arlington students decided to form their own A. Y. group. After many months of hard work, Allied Youth had its chartering ceremony in June, 1955.

Under the leadership of Ed Turvey, president; Dee Jennings, vice-president; Ginnie Roop, secretary; Richard Lee, treasurer, and advisers Miss Annette Jackson and Mrs. Marilyn Howells, Allied Youth has had a profitable and fun-filled year. To prove that you can have fun without alcohol, Allied Youth sponsored a hayride, dance, wiener roast, and other activities. With the aid of religious and medical speakers and movies, Allied Youth members have learned more about alcohol and its relation to social activities.

The Late Christopher Bean

On December 10 the junior class presented The Late Christopher Bean, directed by Mrs. Wilma Gary.

Abbey (Mary Beth Lutz) the maid, who was in love with Christopher Bean, a deceased painter, had quite a time proving to Mr. and Mrs. Haggett (Richard Hoffman and Hazel Neisser) that the paintings were hers. The play was climaxed when Abbey revealed that she was Mr. Bean's widow.

The Man Who Came to Dinner

Mr. Shreffler, assisted by student directors Betty Baker and Enid Levenson, directed the senior class presentation, The Man Who Came To Dinner, on April 13.

Sheridan Whiteside (Rich Lee), a well-known lecturer and radio personality, is confined to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley (Tim Cochran and Carolyn Whipps) when he supposedly suffers a broken hip.

Whiteside immediately takes over the household, inviting several Hollywood friends to the house. Banjo (Dick Hardy), a slapstick comedian, and Lorraine Sheldon, (Nancy Lloyd), a glamorous star, are only two of the many stars who invade the Stanley household.

The Remarkable Incident at Carson Corners

The Remarkable Incident at Carson Corners, presented by the Dramatics Club, was under the direction of Mr. Lance Shreffler and student director, Donna Baker.

The high school students of Carson Corners call an assembly to indict the janitor (Kenny Deeds) of the murder of a classmate who fell from a fire escape. As the trial proceeds it comes to light that not only is the janitor guilty, but also the parents. The doctor (Rog Rattan) did not report to the hospital immediately to see the patient; the businessman (Allan Quigley) spent money to beautify the town rather than make repairs on the school; and the building inspector (Dave Stevens) failed to check the fire escape.

Vocal Music

So young—and yet so justly proud; so tireless—and yet so sought-after; so changing—and yet so full of tradition: that is Upper Arlington High School's Senior Concert Choir, under the inspired leadership of Herbert S. Yenser.

Now completing its fifth year, it has become not only a treasured school institution, but a community favorite. It has, of necessity, been limited to 145 voices, but it has been more than indirectly the inspiration for the new Freshman Choir of 88 members, and of the two glee clubs which will come into being when facilities in the new high school are available. In addition, the 538 Junior High Choraleers become its proudest understudies. For untiring assistance in this vocal work, much credit goes to Mrs. Lois Allen, and to the accompanists, Helen Buchanan and Hazel Neisser for the Senior Choir, and Pat Brown for the Freshman Choir.

Beyond the halls of Upper Arlington High School, the Senior Concert Choir has this year appeared before the Retired Teachers at Ohio State University last October, and the Columbus Lions' Club this spring. The Freshman Choir gave a concert at Trinity Methodist Church during Lent.

For many to whom Christmas is never complete without carolling, the Senior Concert Choir sang in the community on a cold December night, meeting together afterward for their own party. The Freshman Choir carolled the same week, and had a party.

To the student body, the choir gave the traditional Christmas assembly on Dec. 21; the unforgettable Easter chapel on March 28; and eternally important for those who had the privilege, the graduation music on June 5.

For the ever-appreciative community—of students, parents, teachers and other friends—there were the Junior High Karnival Kapers in November; the Yuletide Festival of all three choral groups in December; the completely magnificent "Oklahoma" during the entire week of March 12; and the Spring Choral Festival on May 11 and 12.

The Senior Concert Choir has established its place through its contribution in song, in its sincerity of purpose, by its loyalty to challenging leadership, with its response to training and technique, and always because of its unalloyed love of music.

Hazel Neisser and Helen Buchanan, accompanists; Mrs. Lois Allen, assistant director.

OKLAHOMA

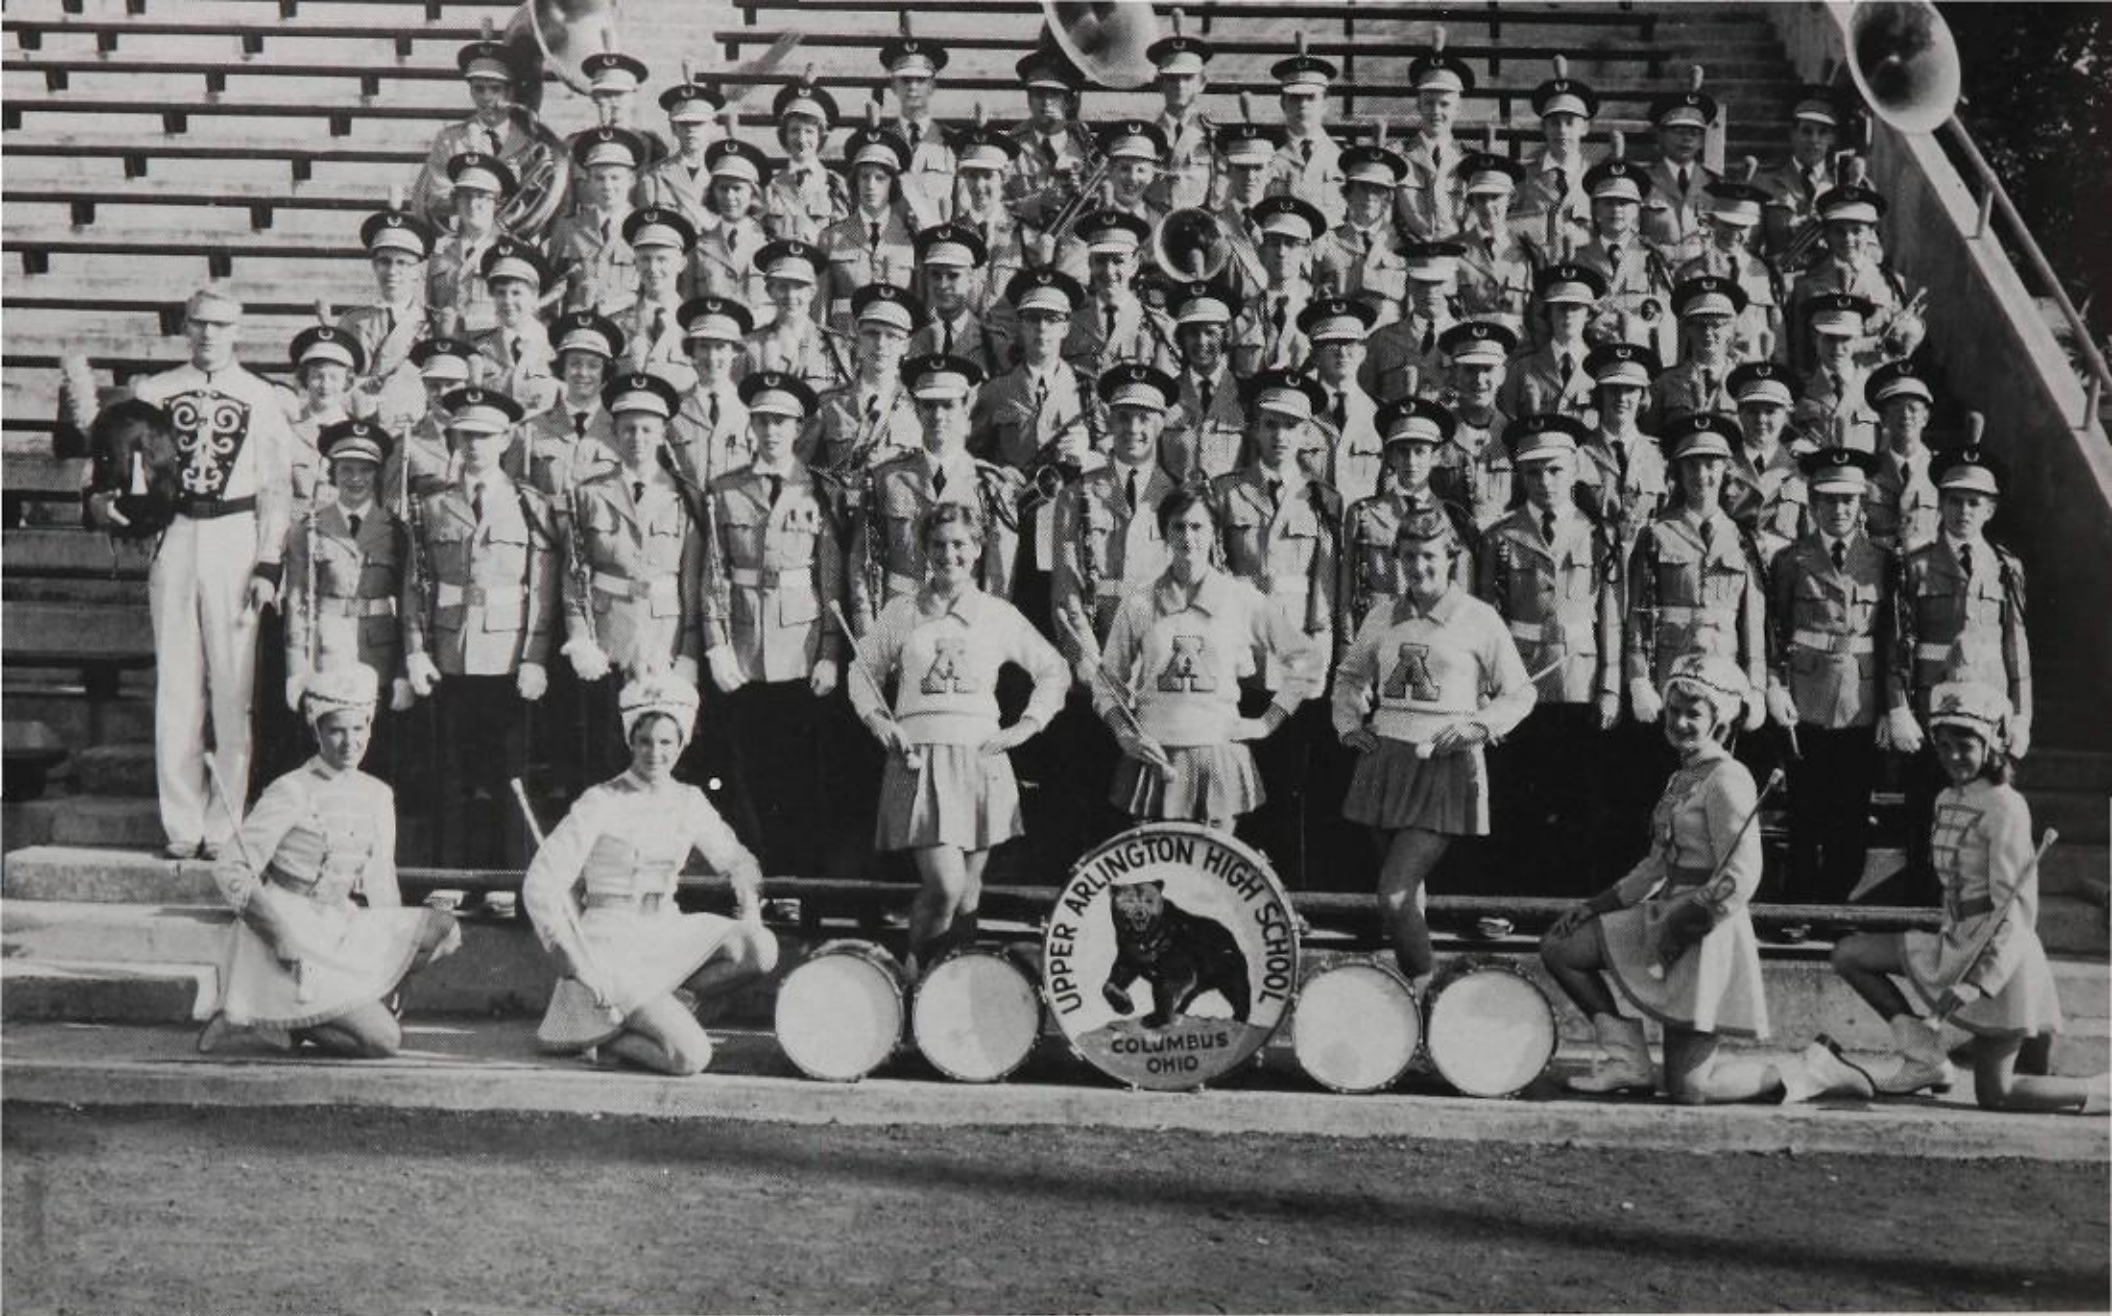

OKLAHOMA!

With its most ambitious undertaking in its brief five-year history, the Senior Concert Choir gave a memorable "Oklahoma!" to the community during the week of March 12. Under the enthusiastic leadership of Herbert S. Yenser, to whom "Oklahoma!" became a challenge more than two years ago while the music of "Brigadoon" was still fresh and gay, the Senior Concert Choir, and the Concert Orchestra, which was directed by Robert Ginther, gave its most unforgettable performance.

"Oklahoma!" which is not just a wonderful Broadway musical, but destined to become a part of the permanent literary and musical heritage of America, played and sung before two matinee audiences, and for four evenings to more than 5,000 friends in the community and beyond. It was most professional in its entire presentation, for which not only Mr. Yenser and Mr. Ginther receive due credit, but also Mr. Lance Shreffler, Mrs. Lois Allen and Miss Shirley Chick of the faculty; Margo Fodor and John Joseph, student directors. No small credit must also go to Hazel Neisser and Helen Buchanana for their work as accompanists throughout the show.

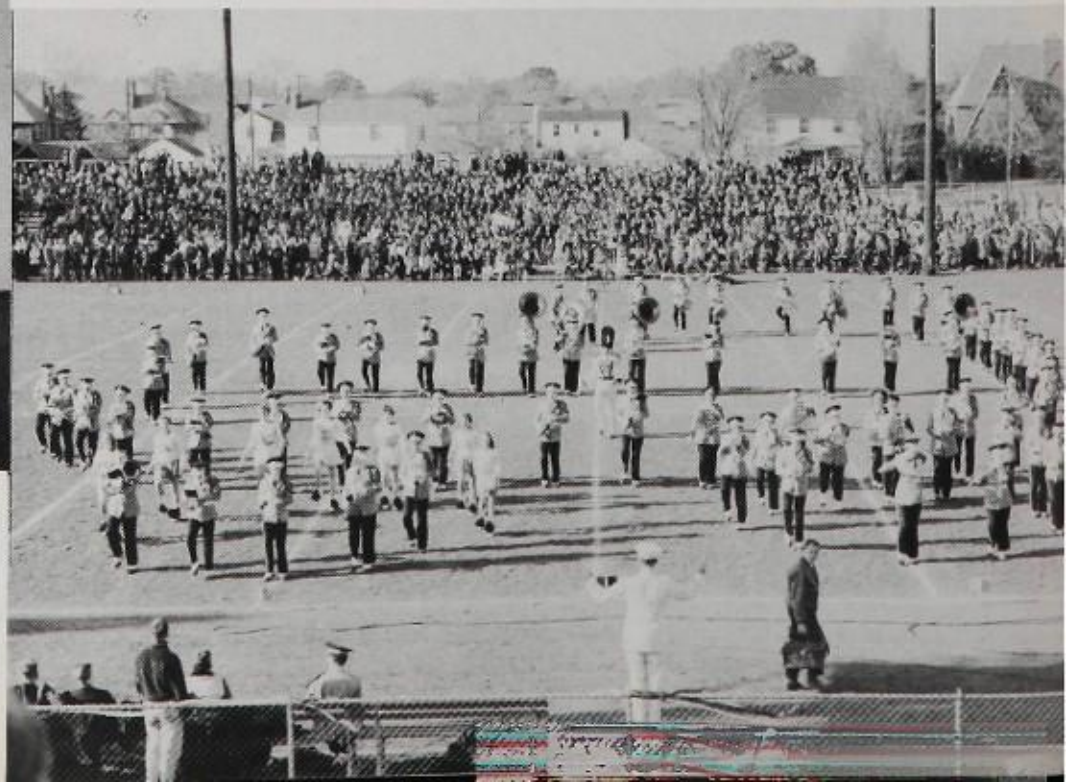

Somewhat unprecedented was the use of a large number of students for the seven leading roles — 19 in all playing the leads during the six performances: for Laurey, Peg Kerschensteiner, Jane Rudolph and Kay Kauer; for Curly, Roger Rattan, Bob Fitzsimmons, Tom Sellery; for Ado Annie, Joan McCullough, Linda Dorff, Jane Hollenbeck; for Will Parker, Dave Stevens, Howdy Freeland, Dave Olson; for Aunt Eller, Susie Koch and Hazel Neisser; for Jud Fry, Ed Turvey, Jon Blyth, Bill Hadley; and for Ali Hakim, Ron Smith and Dick Tinsley.

Instrumental Music

Ushering in the nineteen fifty-five season with the annual Band Camp at Hilliards, the Upper Arlington Marching Band prepared itself for its halftime shows at all the football games. For the first season in many years, the band performed at all the away games. The marching season was culminated with a clever portrayal of Homecoming Queen Judy Smith's life done in the style of the television show, "This Is Your Life."

Paced by Drum Major Bill Cook, this year's drum majorettes — Bonnie Huck, Diane Miller, Rita Hite, Linda Snashall, Jane Cellio, Brenda Irwin, and Betsy Eeles — added much sparkle to the band's performances.

After the last football game, the band prepared for the Christmas season and presented "Christmas Suite," "White Christmas," and Leroy Anderson's "Sleigh Ride" at the Christmas programs.

During the concert season, the group sight read such numbers as "Grand Canyon Suite" and "Night Beat."

Highlighting their year's work under the inspiring leadership of Director Robert Ginther, the band presented a highly entertaining program at the annual Spring Concert, proving itself to be an organization of which we all may be justly proud.

Using only two periods a week for preparation, the high school orchestra has presented many fine programs this year. The group accompanied the senior choir for the first time in the annual Christmas production, "Song of Christmas."

The orchestra added to their acclaim later in the year as they combined their talents with the members of the senior choir to produce the musical, "Oklahoma!"

It was a tired group of football players who left the practice field on August 20, 1955. That was the day of Arlington's first football practice of the '55 season. The Bears were under the leadership of three new varsity football coaches, Marvin Moorehead, head coach; Pete Corey, line coach; and Bob Meeder, backfield coach. The team and coaches had to work very hard in order to instigate the new regime.

On September 9 the annual Preview with North, West, and Grandview was held on Arlington's field. Arlington and West bowed to the co-winners, North and Grandview.

The following Friday, Arlington traveled to South where the Bears were upset 12-7. South, capitalizing on Arlington's mistakes, scored in the second and fourth quarters. Lew Dulin scored the lone Arlington touchdown in the fourth quarter.

On September 23 Upper Arlington was host to the West High Cowboys. Chuck Hittson, Arlington's fine fullback, scored the only touchdown of the evening, giving Arlington a 6-0 win over West.

On the following Friday, Arlington traveled to Bexley for its first C.B.L. game. There the Bears dealt the Lions a 34-0 defeat. Chuck Hittson, Phil Boswell, and Lew Dulin all hit pay dirt. Chuck Collins and Jim Rankin scored on passes thrown by quarterback Dave Locey. The conversions were made by Dan Duncan.

The Arlington-Urbana game of October 7 was postponed, and so the Bears were without action that night. They were, however, to see much action in the following five weeks.

On October 14 the Bears jolted the Yellowjackets of Mt. Vernon 32-13. Chuck Hittson scored three of the five touchdowns, and Lew Dulin the other two. Dan Duncan put two conversions through the uprights that night.

Delaware was the next team to meet defeat as the Bears ruined the Panthers' homecoming by beating their highly spirited team 27-12.

The following Thursday a tough St. Charles was downed by only two points. Dave Locey, Tom Schooley, and Lew Dulin scored the all-important touchdowns for Arlington, and the educated toe of Dan Duncan supplied the winning margin.

Then on the following Tuesday, November 1, the Bears got their chance to play the Urbana Hill Climbers. The fired-up Arlington team swamped Urbana 48-6. Dave Locey, Jim Rankin, Lew Dulin, John Johnson, and Larry Shirey all rated in the Bears' scoring column. Dan Duncan added six extra points to the score.

All in a day's work, the Bears met Grove City three days after the Urbana game. This non-league game was not much of a test for Mr. Moorehead's Golden Bears, as Arlington easily won 47-6. Dave Selby scored two touchdowns, and Jim Rankin and John Johnson each scored a touchdown. Dan Duncan scored three touchdowns and made five conversions.

The C.B.L. championship game between Arlington and Grandview was played on Veterans Day. Judy Smith and her court reigned over a capacity crowd at Arlington stadium. The Bears were stunned by Grandview's A to Z (Anderson to Zuhars) offensive combination, and against Grandview's tough defensive team were allowed only 102 yards all afternoon. The game ended with a 12-0 victory for the Bobcats of Grandview.

Twenty-six seniors received their last high school football award at the annual Booster Club football and cross country banquet, held at Ohio State's Student Union. Doyt Perry, former Arlington and Ohio State coach and now head coach at Bowling Green University, was the guest speaker. The banquet was climaxed by the announcement of the co-captains for the 1956 Golden Bears' football team. The new co-captains are end Ed Shaffer and quarterback Dave Locey.

Captain Bob McWilliams and Coach Kish

Upper Arlington cage squad tryouts began on November 7 with Captain Bob McWilliams and Coach Mike Kish leading the Golden Bears toward their seventeen-game regular season schedule and the district tournament.

Seniors included on the squad were Captain Bob McWilliams, Howdy Freeland, Joe Berwanger, Charlie Rowe, Rosser Edwards, and Jim Dennis. Junior members were Jim Sharer, Jack Nicklaus, Dave Locey, Bill Cook, Dana Pratt, Bob Butler, Dick Slater, and Brian Hill, who along with sophomore Ted Ongaro, comprised the underclassmen roundballers.

The season's opener at North High, Nov. 29, was a close conquest as the Bears bowed 66-67.

On the rebound the Bruins defeated Linden in the home court opener by a score of 66-60. Mount Vernon established itself as the team to beat as it outclassed U. A. in a game in which both teams were in contention until the final buzzer. The final tally was 73-85.

Row 2: Ron Anderson, Dale Wade, Bill Doerr, Lyle Pettit, John Johnston, Bob Van Schoyck, John Jenkins.

The Bears greatly improved their record in two successive nights as they defeated Delaware 71-41 on December 16 and Huntington in a wild scoring battle, 91-82, on the following Saturday.

C. B. L. hopes were seriously dampered by an inspired, injury-ridden Bexley five as Arlington found itself on the short end of a 68-71 score on January 13.

Led by high scoring Bill Cook, the Kish-men conquered four teams in a three-week period of rousing victories. Urbana fell 51-49; Mount Vernon, then rated sixth in the state, was upset 67-59 on January 27; Delaware, with John Tally, succumbed 67-51 on February 3; and the following night a new visitor, Cincinnati Wyoming, was humbled 87-73.

Two C. B. L. foes, Grandview and Bexley, bowed to the Golden Bears by scores of 75-58 and 68-66 on successive weekends.

In the final league and regular season game Arlington was upset at Urbana by a score of 67-69.

The Bears' district championship hopes were kept alive by their 63-57 victory over Hilliards at the coliseum and then dashed by Columbus South as the bulldogs triumphed 79-64 on March 2.

RESERVES

Hail the Champs! The Golden Cubs took possession of the C.B.L. Reserve Championship and established a season record of ten wins and two losses.

The Cubs dropped their first contest by but one point to North, beat Linden 41-23 seven days later, traveled to Mount Vernon only to bow 34-39 and from that time on refused defeat from anyone.

Most impressive was the important Bexley contest of January 13 in which Arlington triumphed 63-52 with a very effective fast break featuring Lyle Petit's 27 points.

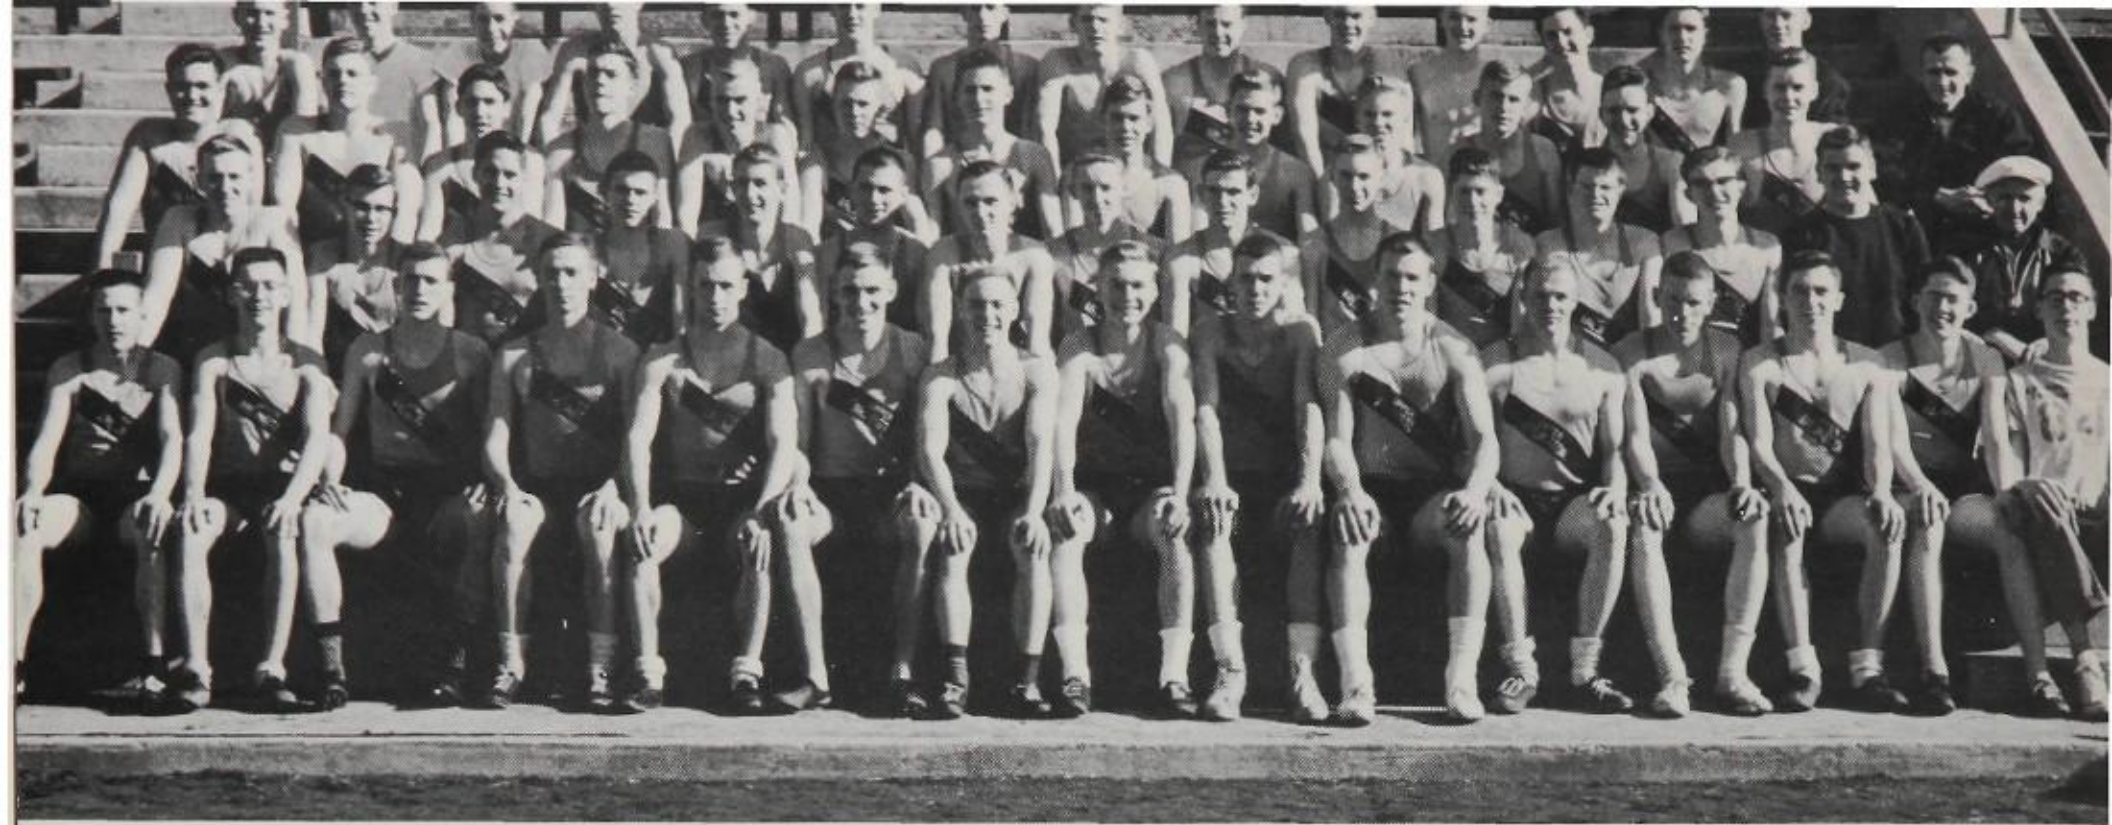

Under the leadership of Coach Bob Meeder, the boys had a very successful season, scoring 527 points to their opponents' 446-point total.

Track

As in past years, on March 1, Coach Richard Larkin called the first practice session of the oncoming season.

Of the nine returning lettermen led by Captain Lew Dulin, all excelled in competition last year. In the 100-yard dash, Dulin and Chuck Collins returned for their third year of Varsity competition. The 220 also featured returning lettermen Bruce Nelson and Collins. Dan Duncan and Phil Carter again had the 440 under control.

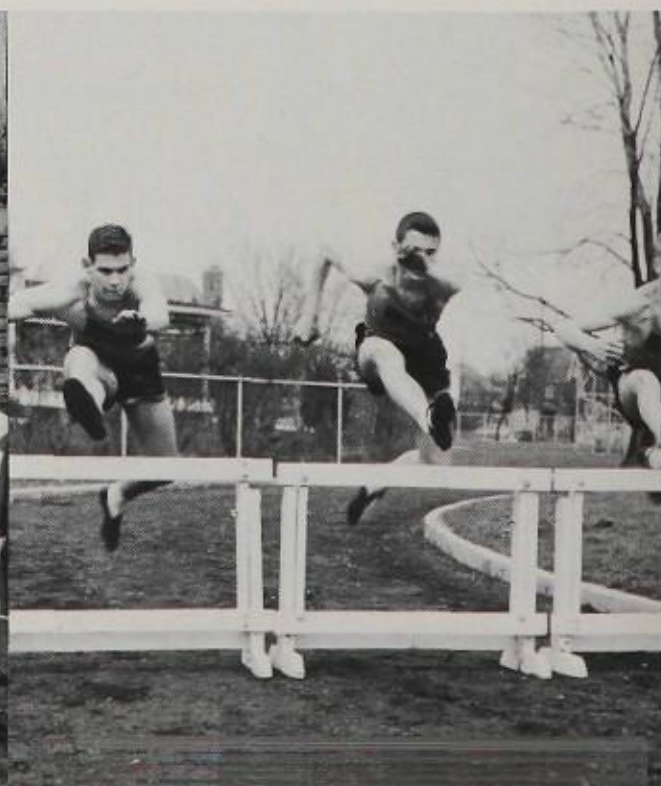

Wyman Haskins was the only returning letterman in the 880 and mile runs, but Bill Dawson, Don Smith, and Ronnie Stone, all experienced runners, gave these events a promising outlook. Pete Nitschke, a letterman, Ed Shaffer and Tom Schooley were the big men in the hurdle events.

In the shot put and discus Dick Sebastian dominated the blue ribbons but was followed closely by Mike Fitzgerald and Harry Brown.

The pole vault boasted a complete line-up of veterans in Rick Eisenman, Bill Masters, John Joseph and Rosser Edwards. Chuck Hittson and Masters, both lettermen, starred again this year in the high jump. Completing the field events, the broad jump was handled by Captain Dulin.

Only the 880 and mile relays suffered loss of personnel; Dulin, Nelson and Collins were back for their third year in 880 relay but needed a new fourth man as did the mile relay. Duncan, Carter and Ken Yarnell held down the other three posts.

The schedule this year was packed with formidable opponents, but Arlington still expected to take its second straight C. B. L. title and seventh crown in the last eight years.

Baseball

In early March approximately eighty candidates for the 1956 baseball team turned out for the first practice under Coach Bob Meeder, at his first year at the Golden Bear reins. One month later, April 3, the varsity took the field at West for the first of twenty-one games.

Led by Co-captains Dan Williams and Phil Boswell, eight lettermen returned from last year's squad. The eight included Dick Bearse, Bob McWilliams, Chuck Hosterman, Jim Thomas, Steve Williams, Ted Ongaro, Phil Boswell, and Dan Williams.

This nucleus, plus several promising juniors, set the achievements of last year's honor winning team as a goal. The 1955 Bears tied for the C.B.L. championship with Bexley and Delaware and defeated defending champion St. Charles for the Central District crown.

Even though this year's squad may have been a little short of experience, their excellent spirit and hustle more than made up for their lack of know-how.

Under Coach Paul Corey the reserve team was made up of juniors and sophomores. The freshmen had a team of their own. The experience that these boys received will prove invaluable in later years when they make up the varsity team.

Swimming

Coach Ches McPhee and Co-captains Dave Jones and Allan Quigley

Coach Ches McPhee's tankers completed their 1956 season with an excellent record. The Bears tallied their second straight undefeated season of dual meet competition and, in doing so, won the Greater Columbus Swimming Championship. The team also downed Grandview and Fremont in a triangular meet at Fremont, Ohio.

For the second straight time the Bears captured the City Relay Championships by taking six firsts, two seconds and setting six new records for that meet. The next big task for the mermen was the district meet. The team met this challenge and came through with flying colors by capturing six first places and setting two new district records.

From the district meet, fifteen Upper Arlington swimmers advanced into the state preliminaries and four individuals, along with two relay teams, were able to reach the finals. These swimmers were able to compile a total of 23 points, which earned the team the third-place berth in the Ohio High School Swimming Championships.

The 1956 Arlington swimming squad broke all previous U.A.H.S. swimming records. The Golden Bears also claimed ownership of six City Relay records as well as two district records.

The 1956 swimming team has gone down in the books as the most powerful swimming team in Upper Arlington's history. With 13 returning lettermen on the roster, Coach Ches McPhee hopes for an even more powerful team next year.

Cross Country

Coach Richard Larkin and Captain Wyman Haskins.

The Upper Arlington Cross Country team received one first place and six second places, which contributed to a profitable season. The Bears placed fourth in the District Cross Country Meet, with Wyman Haskins and Don Smith placing ninth and nineteenth respectively.

At Newark the team lost its opener, but later racing the Wildcats on their home court, the Bears settled their score with them and won. Wyman Haskins finished first, followed by Don Smith and Bill Dawson.

East bested the harriers in a meet at Northam Park; however, the thinclads placed second in a triangular meet with West and Worthington.

Making the annual trip to Springfield, the Bears received a second by defeating Lima Shawnee in a triangular meet, which Springfield won.

Marion defeated the Bears but Wyman Haskins and Don Smith placed first and second for the losers.

In the next meet Lima Shawnee was followed by Arlington and South. Wyman Haskins won the race with Don Smith and Jim Miller placing second and third respectively.

At the fall sports banquet Bob Wandel was elected captain for the 1956 cross country season.

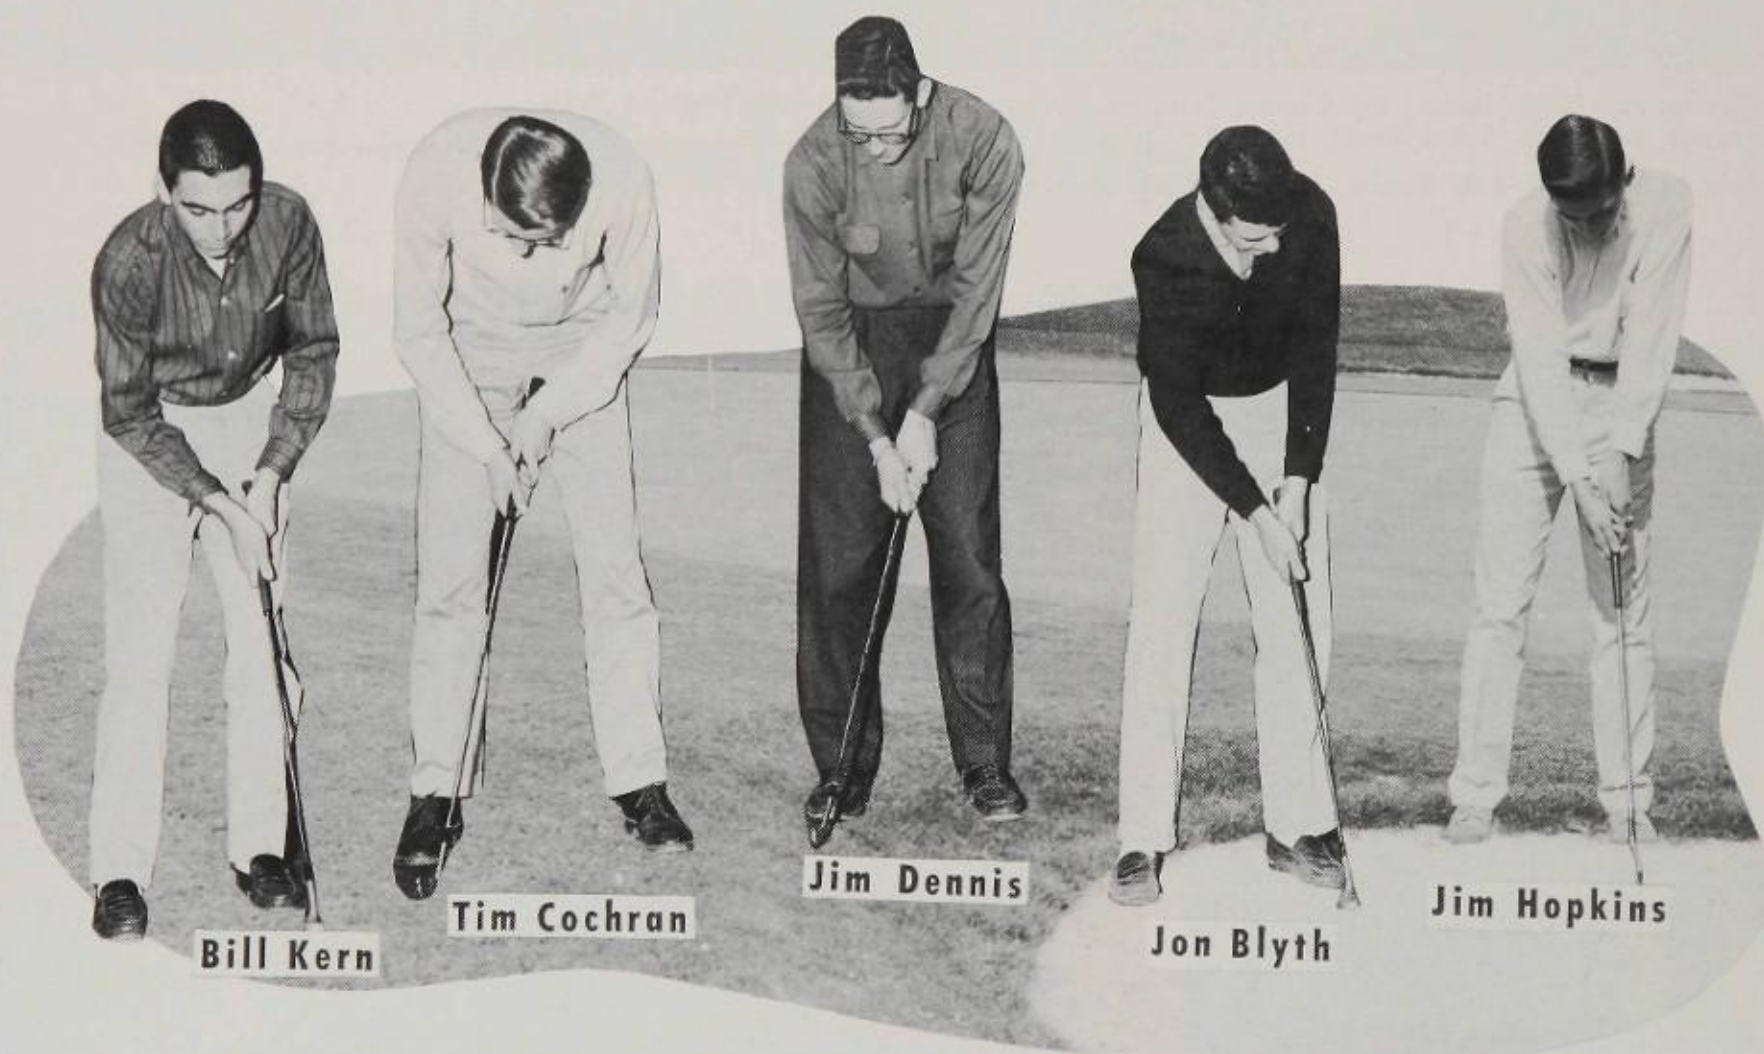

A good year was predicted for the Arlington golfers as they opened their initial practice sessions on the Scioto links in early March. All the lettermen of last year's squad who won the C.B.L. crown and finished third in district competition, returned. These members were Roger Holstein, Bill Kern, and co-captains Jack Nicklaus and Jon Blyth. Other promising candidates for this year's team included Jim Dennis, Tim Cochran, Dan Stone, Jim Hopkins and Jack Saeger.

The linksmen, coached by Mr. Bill Thomas, are chosen for their position on the team by the ladder system. The first four men compete in the events and can be challenged for their positions by inter-squad matches.

Besides regular C.B.L. matches, the Bears played in city, district and state competition. They also competed in two invitational tournaments at Hamilton and Sandusky, Ohio.

Under the new coaching of Mr. Dave Shelby, the tennis team was looking forward to a highly successful season in 1956. All intentions of regaining the C.B.L. crown, last won in 1954, were held by last year's returning lettermen: Captain Charlie Rowe, Dave Peterson, Tom Wessels, Bill Hadley and Jim Sharer.

"Big things" were expected of two new boys, Tom Sellery and Harold Von Ulmer, both of whom undoubtedly helped in keeping the team's spirit high. Other prospective team players included Ronnie McHam, Dale Wade, Richard Hoffman, John Kelly, Don Gehlbach, Jay Lang, and Ed Turvey.

With a twenty-game schedule the tennis team was kept very active with two and three matches a week.

Starting the year ill-equipped and inexperienced, the Bears' first varsity wrestling squad went on to a fairly successful season.

Last year Coach Dale Rose and senior Ralph Kuenning conceived the idea of having a wrestling team. They felt a need for a sport in which any individual could excel.

This year, with increased enthusiasm for the sport on the part of the student body, wrestling became a varsity team under the leadership of Coaches Ray Moyer and Lee Williams.

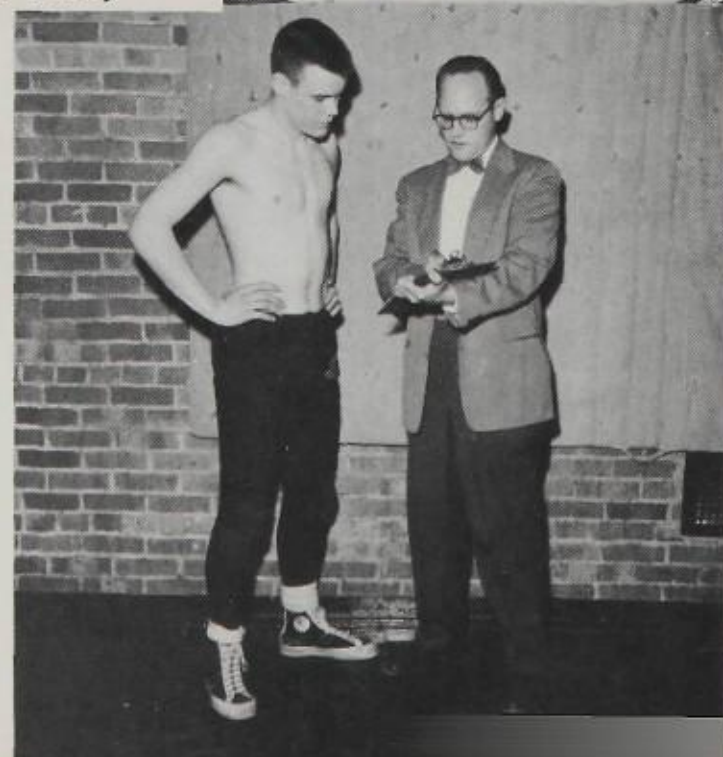

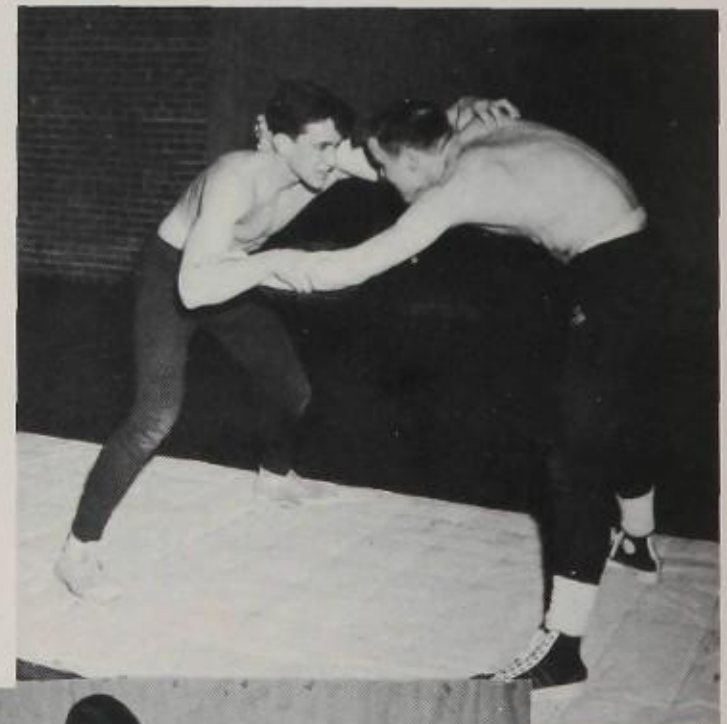

Because of the crowded conditions of the school, the matmen were forced to hold practices in the cold, cramped field house.

The Bruins made impressive victories in the city-wide meet at Ohio State University in which Arlington placed third.

When they met tougher, more experienced opponents in the district meet at Worthington, however, the matmen didn't do so well. Dick Hardy was Arlington's top man in this match.

Arlington succeeded in sending Hardy, a powerful, one-hundred-three-pound senior to the regional tournament at Findlay, where he placed third.

Although the team loses its seniors, a strong group of underclassmen are standing by to take over and lead the team to even greater victories in the years to come.

G. A. A., the Girls' Athletic Association, under the direction of Miss Shirley Chick, has as its primary purpose that of encouraging girls to participate in extra-curricular sports. Girls in grades nine through twelve are eligible for membership. G. A. A. provides not only an intramural program but also arranges for games with other schools. The sports offered are hockey, basketball, swimming, bowling, tennis, golf, softball, volleyball and archery.

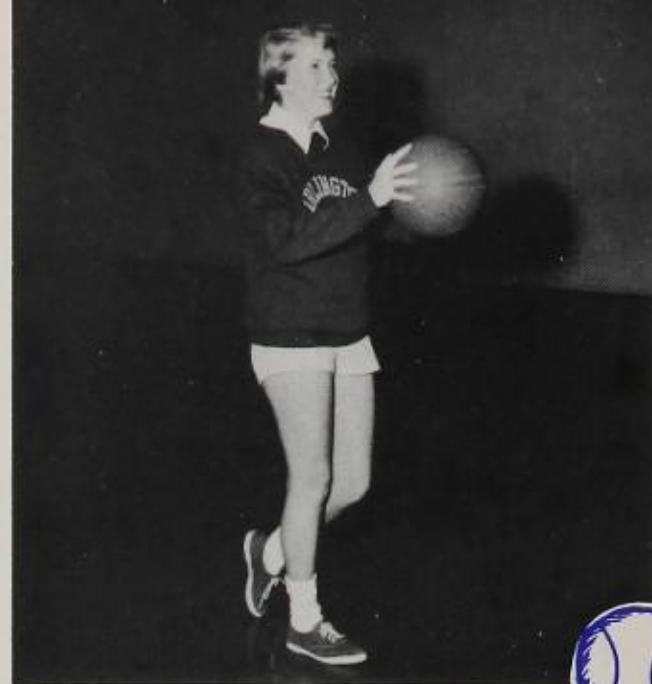

The officers for the past year were Sue Newman, president; Judy Magly, vice-president; Joan McCullough, secretary; and Sy Sherman, treasurer. Jean Fleming served as publicity chairman and Susie Tilton, social chairman.

On May 17 the G. A. A. had a banquet at the Barrington School Cafeteria. At this banquet girls who had made outstanding contributions to sports received awards. Miss Aida Cerda from Chile was the guest speaker. At the conclusion of the affair next year's officers were announced.

G.A.A. opened its 1955-56 season with hockey, one of its two major sports. Try-outs were held again this year for the team, and the competition was very stiff. The team, composed of twenty-eight girls, was finally announced. This group was later subdivided into a Varsity and a Reserve team.

The hockey team had a full schedule this year. The first game on the schedule was at Bexley. The Varsity was defeated 1-0, but the Reserves came out with a 4-0 victory.

In the next two games the teams proved to be evenly matched as the Varsity tied St. Mary's 0-0 and University 1-1. The Reserves ended both games with 0-0 scores. The Varsity again was defeated by a strong Grandview team, 0-2. The Reserves lost 0-1. The Varsity came back to finish the season with a victory over C.S.G. by a score of 1-0. The game ended scoreless for the Reserves.

Basketball for the G.A.A. girls opened its season after Christmas vacation. There was a varsity team which consisted of 15 girls and a reserve team of 15 players.

On January 21 the Gold and Black played Linden-McKinley and emerged victorious in this first game of the season by a score of 18 to 7. The next game was held on January 31 with Bexley, the opposing team, winning by a score of 15 to 12. The following games included foes, such as University, Worthington, North, and Grandview, with the girls putting up a hard fight against all of them.

Traditional "Intramural Night" was held on March 22 with the class teams dressed in costumes. The seniors wore the garb of cowgirls, complete with 10-gallon hats and holsters. They took the song "Pore Jud is Daid" from OKLAHOMA! and rewrote the lyrics to read "Poor Junior Class is Dead," as it was the juniors they played in the finals. The seniors were the victors of this play-off by a score of 42 to 7.

The United States Government has a lot of closely-guarded secrets—weapons, strategies, ways to fight communism. But of all of them, there's one that's more jealously guarded than all the rest. And you're the only one who knows what that secret is!

One of your rights as an American is the right to a secret ballot. And you alone know how you mark your ballot. No one sees it, no one can influence you. It's your secret.

In the Red-dominated countries, your vote—if you get one—is about as secret as a brass band playing in a greenhouse. You usually have only one candidate to vote for. A group of sharp-eyed officials checks your ballot to see that you voted the "right" way.

Some people, even in this country, think that that's the way elections should be run. Most Americans don't agree and it's up to every one of us to see that our ballots remain secret. If we let the secret ballot get away from us, we can say goodbye to all our American rights—freedom of speech, freedom of religion, freedom of press and all the others.

How can we preserve these freedoms? By speaking out strongly when we see them endangered. By using our secret ballot every election day to keep America free. Remember, they're your rights, so treat them right.

DO YOU KNOW YOUR RIGHTS?

As Americans, we have the greatest freedom and the highest standard of living in the world. Help keep it that way by knowing your rights and guarding them well. Some of them are:

- Right to secret ballot
- *Right to know how your union spends your dues
- Freedom of speech
- Freedom of the press
- Right to criticize officials
- *Right to know salaries of your union officers
- Freedom from search without warrant
- Right to petition government for redress of grievances
- *Right to know if your union officers are Communists
- *Right to know how your union is run
- Right to speedy and public trial by jury
- Right to help of a lawyer
- *Right to hear your employer's side of disagreements
- Right not to appear as a witness against yourself
- *Right to refuse to permit the "check-off" of union dues
- *Right to go direct to your boss with a grievance
- Right to be presumed innocent until proved guilty
- Freedom to own property
- *Right to work despite union jurisdictional disputes
- Freedom to work in any locality
- *Right to proper supervision of your union welfare funds
- Freedom to start and manage a business
- Freedom to make a profit
- *Right not to be fired by union leaders
- Right to vote on company's best offer

*These are rights you enjoy under the Taft-Hartley law.
This is a right enjoyed by members of United Steel Workers, C.I.O. only when the Taft-Hartley law is invoked.
